Leading Newspapers.

Dramatic critics unanimously agree that "The Missouri Girl" stands first among domestic comedies.

The New York Telegraph pronounces it "one of the best written O. I. PETERSON, Vice-President comedies ever written in New York. The New York World calls it "a good play" and adds that the production "includes an unusually clever lot of people." The Chicago Chronicle, as well as the News, Record Herald and Tribune, endorses the production.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat endorses the play as "one of the best" and the company "exceedingly clev-

The Times-Star of the same city says, "play and company made a decided hit."

The Toledo News says, "It is a clean, wholesome, mirth-provoking comedy, which can never fail to please."

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune pronounces the play as "highly interesting" and the company as thoroughly competent."

The Times-Star of the same city says, "It was the most enjoyable offering of the season," and even the conservative Enquirer praises the play and people.

If newspaper praise is a criterion by which the theatre-going public can judge an attraction "The Missouri Girl" will easily be the treat of the season. It comes to the Astoria Theatre next Wednesday evening.

ATHLETES EN ROUTE.

Oregon Men Are Greeted by Many at Salt Lake City.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 12 .- Forrest C. Smithson, world's champion hurdler, and Alfred C. Gilbert, world's champion vaulter, arrived over the Rio Grande Friday at 4:30 P. M., and were met at the depot by a committee of athletic enthusiasts in automobiles. Daniel J. Kelly did not stop over, but continued on to Portland.

The two Olympic heroes were taken to the Y. M. C. A., noon and evening and where they met many Salt Lake people. The men will leave for Portland Sunday.

In regard to the Olympic games, Smithson and Gilbert said that with any kind of fair competition the Yankees would have made a clean sweep. They said that much feeling was manifested toward all the Americans who nevertheless at all times proved themselves gentlemen and met the scowls of the deefated with pleasant smiles. FINANCIAL
